News and Reminders

- As detailed in this provider alert, effective September 15, 2024, the Maryland Department of Health will be making provider payments from a new Wells Fargo account.
 - The PRA associated with the first payment made to a provider from this account will display an incorrect negative balance amount. This will be corrected the next time a payment is made to the provider.

- 2. The September Provider Council Meeting will be held on Friday, September 13, 2024, at 10:00 a.m., EDT. Please click here to register for this meeting.
- 3. Carelon Behavioral Health has released a Provider Frequently Asked Questions document regarding the ASO transition. Please click here to view this FAQ document.

4. Suicide Prevention Month

As September marks Suicide Prevention Month, the Maryland Department of Health's Office of Suicide Prevention is highlighting the importance of connecting to hope. Suicide Prevention Month is a time to come together, share resources, and engage in meaningful conversations that can help save lives.

- Access the "Connecting to Hope" Suicide Prevention Month Toolkit.
 Check out the Resources Section for social media posts throughout the month
- Access and share the Maryland Action Plan to Prevent Suicide in K-12 Schools (MAPS) Reference Guide
